DETAILED ACTION

1. In view of amendment filed May 10, 2005, claims 2-13 have been cancelled.

Claim 1 is pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Mashelkar et al. (US 5,780,578) for the reasons adequately set forth from Non-final office action of November 10, 2004.

Applicant's arguments filed May 10, 2005 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. Applicants argue that the composition of Mashelkar et al. is a three component system. However, applicants clearly fail to recognize that Mashelkar et al. (col. 9-10, example 7 and 8) clearly disclose compositions comprising all the components as claimed. Claim 1 stands anticipated.

Conclusion

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
